At-Home Care Guide

Now that you have your new Kim Nicole HairXtenz™ hairstyle it's important to know the proper upkeep to get the most out of them.

Immediately Following Service

- With the Keratin System, you should not shampoo for 48 hours. The bonds need this time to fully set. If any water gets trapped in them during this process it could cause the bonds to breakdown.

Pre-Shampooing

- Spray a mixture of conditioner and water and brush out the hair from the bottom up with a loop brush or flex-o-brush to remove all tangles prior to washing it. (This short step is useful to prevent any knots that can be locked in from the water. When lots of water is added at once to very dry hair, hair can swell up and tangle, therefore you MUST gradually wet the hair and brush gently before you completely saturate it.)

Shampooing

- Keep the hair clean by shampooing the hair at least once or twice a week with warm or cold water.
- Shampoo hair in a downward motion, do not mix hair all together and create unnecessary tangles.
- Massage at the scalp and do not scrub. Scrubbing could cause the hair to tangle or mat.
- Shampoo at 2-3 times, rinsing in between shampoos. Rinse thoroughly and towel dry. (It is best to air dry the hair but you can also blow-dry with low or medium heat.)
- It is recommended to use a deep cleansing or chelating shampoo every 2 weeks to remove build up. Build up can make the hair dry and tangle. Use moisturizer to avoid this problem every time you wash your hair.

Conditioning

- Conditioning and moisturizing the extension hair as well as your own hair is mandatory to its maintenance and longevity. However, it is possible to over condition the hair causing build-up and heaviness. If the hair becomes dry or heavy from too much hair care products, use a deep cleansing or chelating shampoo.

Drying

- Using a blow-dryer, dry the hair 80-90% on low or medium heat using your fingers before using the extension brush to finish your blow dry style. However, it is best to allow the hair to air dry.

Daily Maintenance & Styling

- Brush your hair 2-3 times daily using a soft bristle brush or loop brush, starting at the ends of your hair and gently work your way up.
- Styling products create build up on the hair. Use hair spray or other styling products sparingly and try to avoid those containing alcohol that can cause the hair to become dry.
- When using heat appliances, keep away from the bonded tip of the Keratin extensions. Heat can cause the bonds to loosen and shed. We also recommend that for curling the hair, you use steam-rollers or molecular steam rollers.
- When you sleep, always brush your hair in the same method as previously discussed, then you should braid, wrap, or ponytail all your hair together to prevent tangling.
- NEVER SLEEP ON WET HAIR. Make sure the hair is completely dry before going to bed.

Exercise

- When swimming, always wear a cap to prevent prolong exposure to chlorine or salt water which causes the hair to tangle. Always wash the hair right away with shampoo and conditioner after swimming in both types of water. When going to the spa, the hair should be brushed out completely and should be wrapped in a cold wet towel. It is recommended to wear your hair up or in a ponytail when you swim or exercise.

Hair Processing

- It would be advisable NOT TO TINT, COLOR, PERM OR DO ANY EXTRA CHEMICAL PROCESSES because it has already been treated. Please be extra careful with blonde and other light colored hair. They are more chemically processed than the dark hair. Therefore, we will not be responsible for the outcome.
